

Services

Lodging

Flowering

Trail

Flora

Inca Trail

Community
Tourism

KUSHIWAIRA
"WIND OF LUCK"
Tourist and Cultural Center

Cuenca - Tarqui Parcoloma

Tel: +593(0)72 440411
Cel: +593(0)997476337
kushiwaira@gmail.com
www.kushiwaira.com

KUSHIWAIRA "WIND OF LUCK" Tourist & Cultural Center

Itinerary

1. Welcome to the cottage Samana Wasi Kañarishungo
2. Toast with "Canelazo". It is a traditional symbol of welcome and fellowship.
3. Breakfast with typical food of the community, "mote pata", "mote casado" "agua aromática" (tea) or coffee.
4. Explanation in a map for the walking.
5. Visit a guinea pig experience.
6. Arrival to Ingacuca. Explanation of medicinal plants, each one with its name in Quechua.
7. Arrival to Hurcu Achapana: overlook. Where you'll see mountains and beautiful landscapes. These ones were part of a larger Cañari territory.
8. Tour to Jambían. Where we'll find medicinal plants used for thousands of years before the Spanish came. We'll explain the curative values of each plant.
9. Arrive at the highest point of the mountain. We'll find the fresh air, We'll practice rituals dedicated to Taita Inti (sun), Mama Quilla (moon), Pachamama (Mother Earth), Kuillurs (stars), who are the gods of the Cañari town.
10. From the overlook Cañaribamba, we'll observe historical sites and touristic attractions.
11. Arrival to Ingañan (Inca Road) with its beautiful and varied natural colors of the Earth.
12. In the sacred place will enjoy the "pampamesa" (community meal). You'll savor the great delight of the food that is produced locally as "pollo criollo", cheese, potatoes, mote casado, peas, "huevos criollos", vegetables, chili, "pepa de sambo", "aguitas aromáticas", etc.
13. Back to the cottage, Tourist and Cultural Center, Kushiwaira, we'll demonstrate the spinning of the "guango" with sheep's wool. There are sales of handicrafts made by members of the community.
14. Live music with the musical group Kikintaquina which means "our music". We'll play the following musical instruments: flute, kena, piccolos, pingullo, rondador, drum, bass drum, wuiro, guitar, by the bocina, and accordion. The wind instruments are made with our hands and our songs are inspired by Quechua and Spanish languages.

15. We sell handicrafts made by women of the community.
16. Enjoy a little ride.
17. Popular dance. Party with members of our community.
18. A thank you farewell for visiting our grateful community.

Price: $ 40.00 per person (includes transportation).

We also offer hosting if you want to spend the night, including dinner and breakfast the next day. The cost is $ 15.00 USD.

We offer full-time rides. The cost is $ 40.00 USD.

The money raised by tourism community goes to the benefit of nutrition and health of the community Parcoloma.

